Rashard Johnson joined Emory Healthcare in August 2022 as the Chief Executive Officer for Emory Decatur Hospital, Emory Hillandale Hospital and Emory Long-Term Acute Care Hospital. Rashard joined EHC from Advocate Aurora Health in Chicago where he was President of Advocate Trinity and South Suburban Hospitals. In this role, Rashard oversaw the strategic direction and operation of Advocate Trinity's 205-bed hospital and provided executive leadership over Advocate South Suburban Hospital's 230 beds and support services, 700 physicians, 1,100 team members and building facilities. Rashard led the development and implementation of market growth strategies, as well as tactical plans to achieve high-quality, cost-effective patient care and operational excellence.

Previously, Rashard was Vice President of Operations and Chief Operating Officer for the North Houston Market at St. Luke's Health in Houston, a Catholic Health Initiatives affiliate. In this capacity, Rashard provided executive leadership for three hospitals with 276 beds and 12 outpatient care centers. He has also held prior leadership roles at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas, Jackson Health System in Miami and the Miami Veteran Affairs Healthcare System.

Nationally, Rashard is a recognized leader who actively participates in numerous organizations including the National Association of Health Services Executives (NAHSE), Young Presidents' Organization (YPO) and the March of Dimes. Rashard has an M.S. in Health Services Administration and a B.S. in Health Sciences/Health Services Administration from the University of Central Florida.

Johnson earned a master's degree in Health Services Administration from the University of Central Florida, in Orlando. Rashard Johnson is a member of the National Association of Health Services Executives (NAHSE) and the American College of Healthcare Executives (ACHE). He also serves on the Board of Directors for The Greater Chicago March of Dimes as well as the YMCA of Chicago, Southside YMCA Board of Directors. He and his wife, Donnidra, have four children and have dedicated their lives to helping moms and babies across the country after their special needs child, Jazzy, was born at 26 weeks weighing 2 lbs.
