

Meet Our Outpatient Staff

Crystal Champion, PT, DPT, CLT

Crystal Champion joined Emory Healthcare in 2009. She's a certified lymphedema therapist. Champion earned her doctorate and master's degrees in physical therapy from Medical College of Georgia. She received lymphedema training and certification through the Academy of Lymphatic Studies. Champion has served on the Oncology Committee since 2012. She has been instrumental in helping to develop the Oncology Rehabilitation program, as well as, the Lymphedema treatment program at Emory Johns Creek Hospital.

Maria Kidd Doolen, MS, PT, Dry Needling Certified

Maria Kidd Doolen has been with Emory Healthcare since 2014. She brings over 20 years of experience in physical therapy. She obtained her bachelor's degree in physical education and a master's in exercise science from the University of Arkansas where she played basketball for the university. Doolen is experienced in sports medicine, orthopedics, manual therapy, dry needling, TMJ and work conditioning/work hardening. Additionally, her background includes home health, rehabilitation and acute care. Doolen enjoys spending time with her young daughter and her two dogs. She enjoys international travel, going to the beach, snow skiing and watching Razorback sports.

Julie Bernsohn Epstein, MS, CCC-SLP, LSVT Certified

Julie Bernsohn Epstein joined Emory Johns Creek Hospital upon its opening in February 2007. She earned her bachelor's in communication and sciences disorders from the University of Maryland and her master of education from the University of Georgia in Speech-Language Pathology. Epstein has 20 years clinical experience in the areas of acute care, inpatient rehab and outpatient clinical settings with pediatric, adult, and geriatric populations. She is a certified LSVT clinician and is a member of the Dysphagia Special Interest Group through the American Speech-Language and Hearing Association. Epstein enjoys spending time and traveling with her husband and daughter.

Mike Landis, Patient Service Coordinator /Rehab Technician

Mike Landis joined Emory Healthcare in 2000. He is our patient registration and scheduling expert. Landis creates a seamless patient access experience for our clients. He has worked many years as a Rehabilitation Technician and he proficiently assists the therapists in our clinic as needed. His interests include woodworking, motorcycling and country living. Landis is an avid pet lover, especially his two dogs, Sophie and Cooper.

Doug Magill, MS, CCC-SLP, LSVT Certified

Doug Magill joined Emory Healthcare in 2012. He earned his bachelor's in speech and hearing sciences and psychology from The University of Missouri-Kansas City in 1990. He then completed his master's in Speech-Language Pathology in 1992 at Central Missouri State University. Magill offers over 20 years of clinical experience in a variety of clinical settings including outpatient clinics, acute care hospitals, long term acute care hospitals, and inpatient rehabilitation centers. He also holds LSVT certification and is a member of ASHA special interest groups Swallowing and Swallowing Disorders and Neurophysiology and Neurogenic Speech and Language Disorders.

Meet Our Outpatient Staff

Kris Moore, Pt. Access Representative

Kris Moore joined Emory Johns Creek Hospital in December 2016. She is also a patient registration and scheduling expert and able to provide a seamless customer service experience upon their first contact with us. She is married and has three lovely children. She enjoys spending time with her family, reading and doing yardwork.

Komal Sahu, MPH, OTR/L

Komal Sahu joined Emory Healthcare in 2000. She earned her bachelor's degree in occupational therapy from Mumbai University, India and her master's degree in public health from Emory University. She has 18 years of clinical experience in a wide variety of settings including: outpatient clinics, acute care hospitals, inpatient rehabilitation centers, and the school system. She has conducted neuro-rehabilitation research at Emory University. Sahu has extensive clinical knowledge, experience and skills in orthopedic and neurological disorders and oncologic conditions. Komal enjoys spending time with her two daughters, playing tennis and Zumba.

Terry Shea Sylvester, PT, CEAS, Dry Needling Certified, Supervisor

Terry Shea Sylvester joined Emory Healthcare in 2011. She earned her bachelor's degree in physical therapy from the Medical University of South Carolina. Sylvester has 25 years of clinical experience primarily in the areas of outpatient neurological and orthopedic care. Her background includes acute care, long term rehabilitation, pediatrics and home health. She is a certified ergonomist who evaluates and makes recommendations on proper and safe ergonomic work environments in the office and industrial settings. Sylvester enjoys spending time with her family, playing golf, yoga, nutrition and wellness.

Tan Taylor, OTR/L, CPAM, CLT

Tan Taylor graduated with her bachelor's degree in exercise science/kinesiology from Samford University. She earned her master's degree in occupational therapy from Alabama State University. Taylor received lymphedema training and certification through the Academy of Lymphatic Studies. Taylor says she looks forward to helping to educate patients and families impacted by lymphedema.

Zuowei Zhao, DPT, MS, BM, Dry Needling Certified

Zuowei Zhao joined Emory Healthcare in 2014. He earned his medical degree in China, his master's degree in exercise science from University of South Carolina and his doctorate in physical therapy from Georgia State University. He has conducted neuroscience research at Emory University, practiced medicine in China and Germany, and has extensive clinical knowledge, experience and skills in orthopedic and neurological disorders. Zhao's pastimes include meditation, sports and photography.