

Welcome to

Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital

Heather Dexter, MBA, MHA, CEO

Who we are

Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital provides training to physicians from around the world in robotic surgery for valve repair and is a primary location for cardiac rehabilitation. Other services include cancer, neurologic, gastrointestinal, vascular, respiratory and orthopaedic care.

Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital has 410 beds. Community services include free health screenings and in-kind donations to local organizations supporting the homeless and indigent.

Patients served in 2016

■ Inpatient visits (8.58%) ■ Outpatient visits (71.42%)

■ ER visits (19.99%)

Timeline

1880

Founded by the Sisters of Mercy as Atlanta's first hospital

1900

Established one of the first nursing programs in Georgia

1978

Moved to its current location and renamed Saint Joseph's Hospital of Atlanta

1995

Earned Magnet® designation for nursing excellence

2013

Entered into a partnership with Emory Healthcare

Congratulations!

In 2017, U.S. News & World Report ranked Emory Saint Joseph's Hospital the No. 2 hospital in both metro Atlanta and Georgia.

emoryhealthcare.org/esjh/index.html

EMORY
SAINT JOSEPH'S
HOSPITAL