Jen began her career at Emory Healthcare more than 25 years ago as a social worker at now Emory University Hospital at Wesley Woods (formerly Wesley Woods Geriatric Hospital). Following progression through Care Coordination leadership roles, Jen changed her focus to hospital operations management and was promoted to Associate Administrator and eventually Vice President of Operations. She also served as the system leader for post-acute care services.

In 2018, Jen was part of the Emory Healthcare (EHC) integration team that successfully brought former DeKalb Medical under the EHC family. Subsequently, she was named the Vice President of Operations for Emory Decatur Hospital in September 2018. She has continued to partner with patients, staff and healthcare providers to build relationships and a culture of trust to encourage the highest patient experience and quality of service.

Jen received both a Bachelor's and Master's in Social Work as well as Master's in Business Administration from the University of Georgia. She also completed the Woodruff Leadership Academy and the Leadership DeKalb program.
